ASIA FRUIT LOGISTICA is looking forward to welcoming trade visitors from all over the world to its China Business Meet Up, including leading suppliers, buyers, retailers, logistics companies and providers of technology and services throughout the supply chain. "We're delighted to partner with China's top wholesale markets to organise this major industry gathering and we warmly welcome our partners and colleagues to join us as we gear up for ASIA FRUIT LOGISTICA's return to Hong Kong this September," said David Axiotis, managing director of Global Produce Events, which organises ASIA FRUIT LOGISTICA.

"This is the first time that three major markets in north, south and central China have come together in a regional networking and trade event. This type of in-depth activity with strategic partners is key to further extending the reach of ASIA FRUIT LOGISTICA, and it underlines our commitment to promoting communication and cooperation in the fresh fruit and vegetable business."

ASIA FRUIT LOGISTICA has launched the series of Business Meet-Ups to deepen its connections in key markets across Asia and build even greater momentum for the trade show's return to Hong Kong on 4-6 September 2024.

The Shanghai event is the final station in the roadshow series, following the success of earlier Business Meet-Ups in Jakarta (Indonesia), Mumbai (India) at Fresh Produce India and Bangkok (Thailand).
