DeHaat aims to add more farmers on its agritech platform and broaden its service offerings

Agri-tech startup DeHaat has raised $60 million in a Series E funding round co-led by existing investors Singapore's Temasek Holdings and Belgium's Sofina Ventures as it seeks to add more farmers on its agritech platform and broaden its service offerings. Other existing investors RTP Global Partners, Prosus Ventures and Lightrock India, also took part in the round.

Incorporated in 1974, Temasek is an investment company headquartered in Singapore. Supported by 12 offices globally, Temasek owns a S$403 billion (US$297 billion) portfolio as at 31 March 2022, mainly in Singapore and the rest of Asia.

Prior to this round, the DeHaat raised $115 million in a Series D round led by Sofina and Lightrock India in October 2021. Temasek co-invested in the round with participation from existing investors, including Prosus, RTP Global, Sequoia Capital India and Dutch development bank FMO.
