

Corteva appoints Brook Cunningham as President, Asia-Pacific

14 July 2025 | News

Prior to joining Corteva, Brook served in the investment banking division of Lazard as Managing Director and Head of Global Agribusiness and Nutrition.

Prior to joining Corteva, Brook served in the investment banking division of Lazard as Managing Director and Head of Global Agribusiness and Nutrition.

Corteva has appointed Brook Cunningham as President, Asia-Pacific, effective June 1, 2025. Cunningham will be based in Singapore and lead Corteva's commercial business in the Asia-Pacific (APAC) region, spanning 17 countries.

Prior to her appointment, Cunningham served as Senior Vice President, Chief Strategy Officer of Corteva where she led enterprise strategy, mergers and acquisitions, economic and competitive intelligence, sustainability strategy and strategic enablement.

"The Asia Pacific region is at the heart of some of the greatest opportunities and challenges in agriculture today," said Brook Cunningham, Senior Vice President of Corteva and President, Corteva Asia-Pacific. "I look forward to strengthening our connections with local farmers and stakeholders as we work together to support sustainable and productive farming in the region.â?•

Prior to joining Corteva, Brook served in the investment banking division of Lazard as Managing Director and Head of Global Agribusiness and Nutrition.